Monkey Starts School

Monkey is going to school.

Finally!

Monkey thought about the friends he was going to make.

He felt

SO

happy. he screeched.

Then Monkey remembered...

He can't screech at school.

Monkey felt...

Worried.

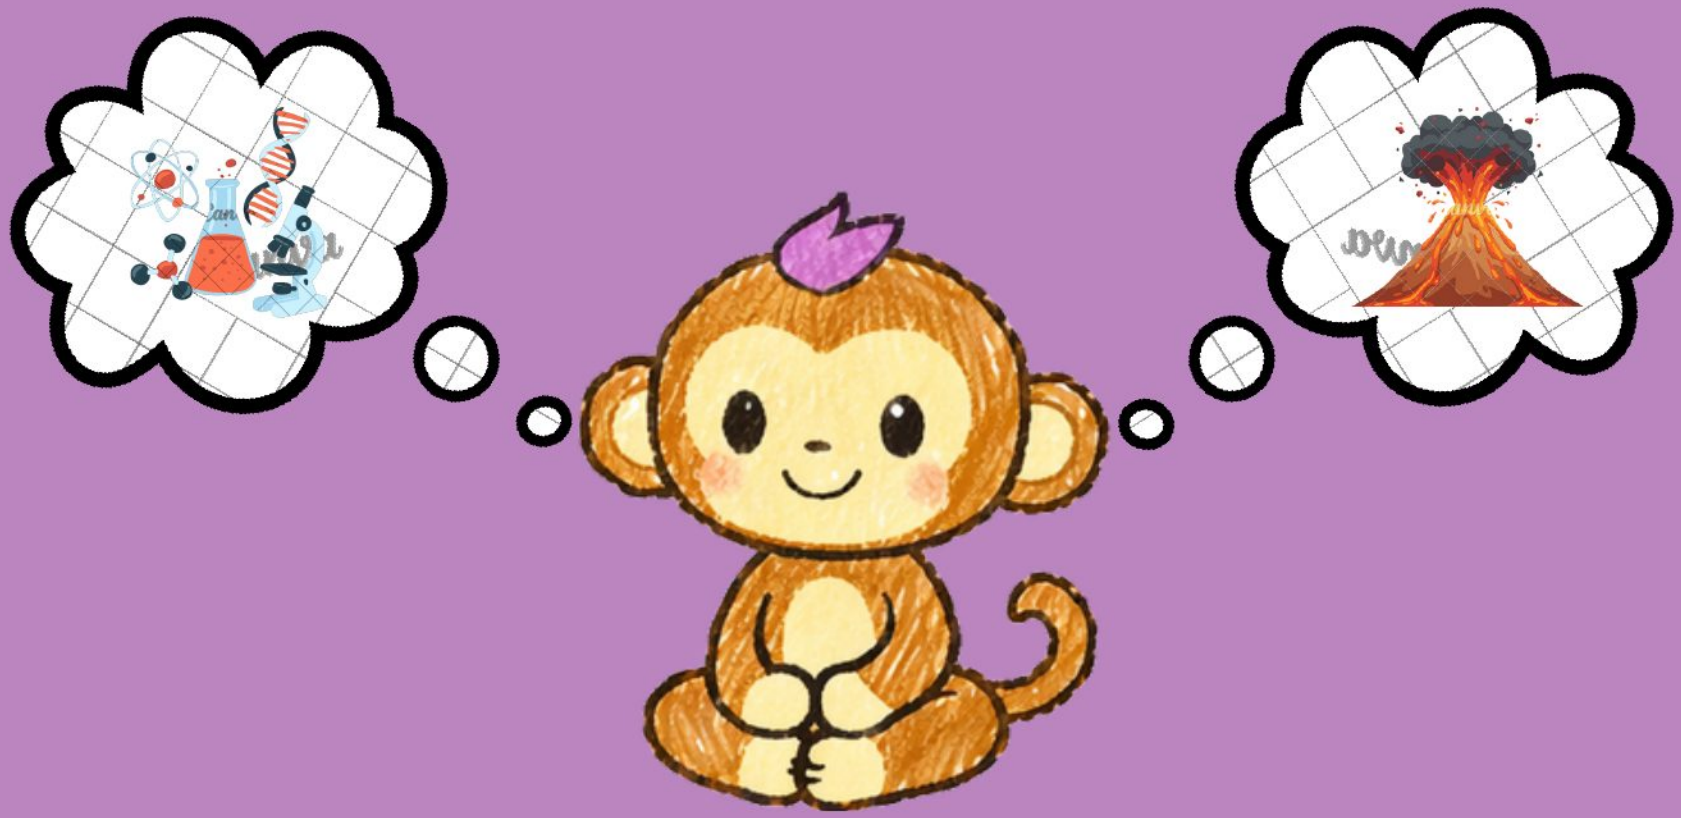

He shook it off!

Monkey thought about learning.

Trying new things.

Cool experiments.

Monkey felt excited.

So excited he jumped up and down!

Then Monkey remembered...

He can't jump in the classroom.

Monkey felt...

Anxious.

He shook it off again.

Monkey thought about running outside.

Fast.

Free.

Laughing loud!

He felt

AMAZING!

Then Monkey remembered...

At school.

there are many rules.

Monkey didn't like that.

He felt...

Angry.

Monkey tried to shake it off.

But Monkey couldn't shake it off this time.

And his feelings got bigger...

AND BIGGER

I DON'T

WANT

TO GO!

Monkey's body felt...

Too full.

He realised he needed help.

Monkey talked to his grown-ups.

They listened.

They went to Monkey's safe space together.

They all took deep breaths.
They talked.

They waited.

Slowly.
Monkey felt better.

Then Monkey remembered something important.

At school.
there is help too.

There are safe grown-ups he can talk to.

And safe spaces he can go to.

A little scary,
but VERY exciting...

School is a safe place!

Monkey felt happy again.

Monkey is ready to try.
